The musical score consists of six staves of handwritten music. The first staff starts with a C chord, followed by a G₉ chord, and then an Em chord. The lyrics describe a scene of people dancing in the heat. The second staff begins with a D chord, followed by an Am chord, and then a G chord. The lyrics continue the scene. The third staff starts with a C chord, followed by a G₉ chord, and then a C chord. The lyrics mention sisters and families walking paths. The fourth staff starts with a D chord, followed by an Am chord, and then a C chord. The lyrics describe the sound of water and acacia trees. The fifth staff starts with an Em chord, followed by a G chord, and then a D chord. The lyrics mention elephant seeds hidden in thorns. The sixth staff starts with a G chord, followed by a D chord, and then a C chord. The lyrics describe a dusty air and something burning.

(after Chorus)

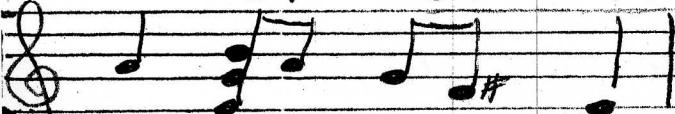

As Nelson Mandela told them years and years before

As long as there are rich, as long as there are poor

There'll be those who kill the world for money and endless, endless war
